

Back-to-School Tax Holiday Information

Contact your customers to let them know about this limited-time benefit! During July and August, fourteen states and Puerto Rico are having a sales tax holiday for school supplies. The dates are listed in the table below under the state abbreviation. Three states—GA, LA, and WI—have suspended the tax holiday again this year. Each state has specific rules by which they define what school supplies are related to this tax break (by description and/or price). The table below shows the items that are included per state statute definitions. The list of items below will be state-tax free during the holiday period (with the exception of IL, which will have an reduced tax rate of 1.25%). Please note that you must place your order with Stampin' Up!® during the tax holiday period in order to receive these items tax-free (which is midnight on the first day to midnight on the last day of the tax holiday). Please note that this is a state sales tax holiday and may not apply to additional county, city, and special jurisdiction taxes.
